

To help us keep accurate clinical records, your dentist may ask for consent to record and transcribe your conversation.

Please know you can ask us to stop the recording at any point.

We don't store recordings. You can read our Privacy Notice or ask the practice to find out more.